

PROGRESSIVE GROCER

30

37

46

63

COVER STORY

30 Get well spoon

Value-added edible oil segment is set to spill over owing to the growing demands of the health conscious urban Indians.

FEATURES

20 Wake-up Call: Label libel

PG contributing editor David Diamond pays a visit to a Hong Kong market on the first leg of an Asian trip and discovers an invaluable lesson in branding.

68 Equipment & Design: Shedding new light

A Wisconsin retailer's replacement case lighting is producing substantial energy savings and drawing positive customer comments.

SUPERMARKET FRESH FOOD BUSINESS

37 Spring toward summer

As meat sales rebound amid a sputtering U.S. economic recovery, grocers and suppliers whet shoppers' appetites with new promotions.

SUPERMARKET FOOD BUSINESS

42 Waste management

Packaging and retail intelligence could help balance the global food supply mismatch.

SUPERMARKET GROCERY BUSINESS

46 Maximum extraction

With innovation taking centre stage in the packaged fruit juices category, topline sales look set to rise.

52 Winning over today's wine consumer

U.S. supermarkets pull out all the stops to bolster sales.

56 Candy land

A sweet stash of new products and promotions illustrate the category's continuing importance to manufacturers and grocers in the U.S.

SUPERMARKET NONFOOD BUSINESS

59 The usual suspects

Unimaginative marketing is impacting the deodorant and antiperspirant category in India.

63 It's a guy thing!

The men's grooming market in India is expected to be worth around ₹68,430 crore by 2020.

DEPARTMENTS

8 Private Label Analysis - Legumes

10 Front End: Right mix of entertainment, cuisine is key to growth

18 Progressive Views: Act green, earn green

24 Datamonitor's Market Insight: Derma matter

72 Technology: The ad hoc analyst

73 What's Next: Editor's picks for innovative products