

PROGRESSIVE GROCER

COVER STORY

28 Being Special

At the two extremes of the retail spectrum are general or department stores, which sell a wide range of products, and specialty stores which only sell products within a given category, but where depth wins over width

FEATURES

18 Interface

Vikran Sabherwal, Vice-President - Marketing, MTR Foods, talks about the company's plans for growing the ready-to-cook category

20 Interface

Niyas KN, Chief Information Officer, MK Retail, charts the progress of his family business

26 Retailing Trends

presents the "Future of Food Retail"

Meal solution merchandising is key to retailer-shopper relationship

SUPERMARKET FOOD & GROCERY BUSINESS

42 In the Bag

Sales of packaged salads remain strong as consumers' appetite for fast and fresh prevails

44 Warming up to Innovation

Better-for-you, single serve and ethnic flavours are among the market drivers for frozen and refrigerated foods

48 Better Bites

Healthy, convenient and ethnic are key trends to frozen appetizers

49 Frozen Snacks

Mintel's Global New Products Database

50 Store of the Month

Lunds' new market in downtown Minneapolis aims to help drive area development

56 Center Store

Shoppers are increasingly demanding nutritional attributes in their snacks

SUPERMARKET NON FOOD BUSINESS

54 It's All About Choices

Selling tobacco products

DEPARTMENTS

6 Market Update

Roundtable: Suppliers and independent grocers share challenges and issues

8 What's new in the F&G market

14 Round Up

National and international company updates

58 Category Watch

Strategies for success in India's snack food market

62 Product Watch

Health and wellness are the new ingredients in processed food

64 Marketing

Soup now comes in a variety of formats

68 Equipment & Design

Supermarket lighting

70 What's Next

Upcoming products to watch
New products in the market