

CONTENTS

APRIL 2011

IN THIS ISSUE

32.....QnA
What's brewing at GJC?
Tony White of Gloria Jean's Coffees explains how the company plans to increase its share in the Indian market.

50.....Spotlight
What's stopping modern retail?
Organised retail has not even tapped one-fourth of India's market potential, says Amit Bagaria.

60.....Insight
Shaken and Stirred
The recent earthquake and tsunami in Japan has affected the world luxury retail market, says Brian Kilcourse.

62.....International Retailing
Russian Roulette
A PMR report shows that particular regional retail markets in Russia reveal differences in their development.

68.....Category Watch
Creating a Luxury Culture
Govt regulations, customs duties and inadequate infrastructure are holding back the Indian luxury market.

76.....Opinion
The Science of Apparel Retail
Apparel retailing has evolved from an intuitive or "gut feeling" business approach into a real science, says Stefaan Le Clair.

80.....Opinion
Deep Discounts – Still Unexplored?
Harminder Sahni says India appears to be ready for a deep discount retail model.

86.....Operations
The choices retailers make
A look at a few critical decisions that retailers make to ensure they move swiftly on the path to profitability.

DESIGN

94.....Design
Carrefour Planet, Lyon
The completely re-designed Carrefour Planet reconnects with the historic tradition of the hypermarket attracting customers in a broad catchment area.

REGULARS

12.....International Updates
20.....National Updates
103.....Stores of the Month
106.....Word Count
110.....Situations Vacant
112.....Tailspin

COVER STORY 38

WHEN RETAILERS TURN SHOPPERS!

AT EUROSHOP 2011, OVER 2,000 EXHIBITORS FROM 53 NATIONS SHOWCASED NEW SOLUTIONS FOR THE GLOBAL RETAIL INDUSTRY. THE PRODUCTS AT DISPLAY COVERED VARIOUS ASPECTS OF THE BUSINESS, INCLUDING VISUAL MERCHANDISING AND RFID.