Atlas, a strong character in Greek mythology, is shown to hold the earth and the sky on his able shoulders. His strength was such that it was said that even the Gods were weary of him and did not mock him. This analogy holds true for our hair and beauty industry as well. Atlas, for us, are all the hair dressers and make-up artists, who ably carry the weight of the industry on their shoulders and keep moving forward to only herald a bright and prosperous future for the industry.

With this as a backgrounder, our cover story is on the top recommendations made by stalwarts in hair dressing and make-up, who share with us the innovative hair and make-up looks to sport for year-end festivities. Be it wedding or parties, the unique offerings made are eye-openers and pearls of wisdom for others to emulate. Asha Hariharan, Agnes Chen, Sidney Ho, Taniyaa Khanna, amongst others, are experts to reckon with and with the information they have shared, you just cannot go wrong.

There are interviews of famous hair stylists, such as Lynndy Rolfe, who is an educator and hair stylist with FHA. Nikki Porter, celebrity hair stylist with a penchant for creating amazing looks, shares an awe-inspiring photo essay. We bring to you her collection. Menaka Ramkumar, Owner of Frizz Da Salon & Academy in Chennai shares with us her journey and the contribution she has made to the growth of the brand. Sanchita Arora, member of the MATRIX Design Team and owner of the Beauty Hub Salon & Academy in Ludhiana talks about Hair Strobing and more.

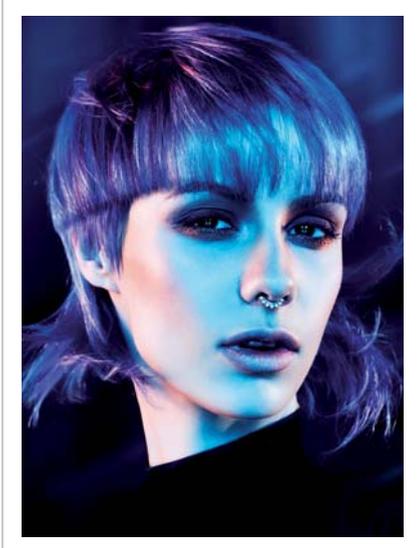

In Beauty, we meet up with Rebecca Restrepo, who is inspired by the vivid colours of her family's Colombian heritage and her favourite painters. In 2012 was named Elizabeth Arden's Global Makeup Artist. With us, she shares her skills and learnings.

In the Spa Focus section, we bring you the design dynamics of Rejuve, The Spa located at The Lalit in Chandigarh. High on luxury, the spa has been planned around a contemporary and modern theme. We also meet up with Dolly Taldar, Spa Head at Sohum Spa in Ramada Resorts & Spa Udaipur. She shares her plans with us.

There is so much more - from brand-related stories to technical - there is plenty of interesting articles for you to browse through!

The last issue of the year, hope springs eternal and for every member of the industry, I wish 2016 to end on a positive note.

Shraddha Kapoor From Wallflower to Sunflower

by Aarti Kapur Singh

The star with a peaches-and-cream complexion, Shraddha Kapoor, rightly believes in watching her diet, which includes plenty of fruits and juices. Hence, it is no surprise that it is also the reason for her glowing skin! She shares with Salon India her beauty and fitness secrets

“Everyday beauty rituals are practical”

“I make sure I have a lot of water, stay optimistic and enjoy every moment, as negative moments reflect on the face instantly. I wash my face at least twice a day, and moisturise it, as per the weather conditions. Long working hours have impacted my skin and to counter the effect, I follow a diet of strawberries and peaches to revive the natural glow. Using a daily cleanser rich in strawberry extract gives an instant radiance, while the peach-enhanced face wash adds an immediate moisture boost. At night, after removing my make-up with baby oil, I wash my face with Cetaphil and follow it up with a moisturising cream from Thalgo.”

“Good hair needs pampering”

“I believe in the power of a regular oil massage and get it done twice a week. A deep tissue head massage is a must, as it strengthens the roots that eventually lead to healthy and beautiful hair. As I have curly hair that tends to become dry very fast, I use homemade hair masks of egg white and olive oil, and hair packs made from Aloe Vera, Hibiscus leaves or flowers and curd. You need to mix these ingredients and coat your hair with it. Keep it on for 20 minutes and rinse it off with water. The cooling and nourishing pack leaves your hair incredibly soft and shiny. My favourite hair care products are L’Oréal hair serum to control frizz, oils from Khadi and shampoos from The Body Shop and L’Oréal.”

“‘Less is more’ is my mantra for make-up”

“It is best to leave your face alone. Constant use of masks, scrubs, and more, can irritate it more than helping it. I am fond of concealers, tinted lip balms and kohl, and a big fan of MAC and Chanel cosmetics. Facial wipes, a good hair spray, kohl and a lip balm are the essentials in my handbag. I like to keep my make-up subtle and soft and wear light and neutral colours. But I make sure to prep my skin with a good moisturiser before applying any make-up.”

“How you feel reflects on your skin”

“I believe in staying happy and positive. I must thank my mother for the naturally radiant and glowing texture of my skin. I do not need a lot of make-up to cover any blemishes, spots or early ageing of the skin.”

“My fitness routine”

“I have never been to a gym, but am a fitness freak and love to exercise and dance. I exercise at 7 am and do push-ups, pull ups, crunches and stretches. They warm me up for my favourite workout, which is dancing. Zumba, belly and hip hop are one of the best dance forms and I practice them daily. I do yoga and meditation on off days from work, and enjoy hill climbing and scuba diving.”
