

- 10 RETAIL INSIGHT
Selling to 10 million grocers in India

- 18 EXPERTSPEAK
How to increase sales throughput

- 38 ONLINE GROCERY
Chandigarh-based Fatafat, a hyper-local delivery start-up, is focusing on 'fresh fruits & vegetables' delivery, with plans to expand into other grocery categories later on

Cover Story

- 24 Smart is as smart does:
How HyperCITY is showing its mojo through clear positioning, assortment build-up and technology

- 40 CATEGORY WATCH
A slew of retailers, marketers and industry experts weigh in on the challenges and opportunities for the frozen food category in India

- 50 TECHNOLOGY
Envision the Future: Redefining the physical store in an omnichannel world

- 58 REPORT & ANALYSIS
A survey by industry body Assocham predicts that India's packaged food market is set to witness a quantum jump to $50 billion by 2017 from $32 billion. How the consumption pattern will play out in frozen foods?

- 64 SEA FOOD
Sustainable certifications in global seafood trade
- 70 RETAILER
Neelam Foodland in Mumbai, which began as a small shop selling a limited range of snacks and savouries, has today grown into an iconic shop for customers looking for an excellent quality range of healthy snacks and other food products

- 76 ALL'S WELLNESS
This key wellness trend can help grocers boost historically lagging milk sales

IN EVERY ISSUE

- 73 INDUSTRY UPDATE
74 WHAT'S NEXT
New products on the shelves
76 COLUMN