

CONTENTS

AUGUST 2011

IN THIS ISSUE

28.....QnA

“The main challenge in sourcing is to provide something innovative”
Pyush Lohia, MD, Lohia Warehouse, discusses the dynamics of outsourcing warehousing and sourcing services and his vision for the future.

48.....Operations

Customer Experience: The Multi-Channel Boost
Kiran Kumar Malathkar explains why in today’s world of ubiquitous connectivity retailers need to ensure convergence across multi-channels for complete customer satisfaction.

54.....Spotlight

Retail Giants of Tamil Nadu
Amit Bagaria tells how regional retailers in Tamil Nadu continue to expand and grow despite stiff competition from national and international retail players.

62.....Opinion

FDI: What’s in Store?
Harminder Sahni says to fully leverage the benefits of FDI in multi-brand retail, India needs a policy that is fair and ensures a sound industry ecosystem.

66.....Market Research

2011 Outlook for Retail and Consumer Products
A PwC report throws light on this year’s outlook for retail and consumer products. The Indian retail market will see an average rate of growth of over 4 per cent in 2010-2014.

DESIGN

78.....Frau & Fraülein Schuhe, Düsseldorf
A high-end fashion destination for women shoes, this newly designed showroom carries an aura of exclusivity. The store has a lively and spacious feel to it, with different characters in various themes showcased across its walls, nicely summing up the brand’s philosophy.

REGULARS

- 10.....International Updates
- 18.....National Updates
- 84.....Stores of the Month
- 88.....Word Count
- 92.....Situations Vacant

COVER STORY 36

MODERN TABLET COMPUTERS ARE POWERFUL, LIGHTWEIGHT MACHINES WITH WIRELESS CONNECTIVITY AND A WIDE HIGH-RESOLUTION SCREEN. THEY OFFER MODERN RETAILERS A SOPHISTICATED TOOL TO REVAMP THE CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE AT RETAIL STORES AND IMPROVE SUPPLY CHAIN EFFICIENCY AND ACCURACY.