CORRIGENDUM:

In our last month's cover story on funding in the retail sector we had included insights which were contributed by Devangshu Dutta (chief executive, Third Eyesight). However these were carried without attribution and also in one instance we wrongly credited Dutta's comments to Kunal Mehta. We regret the error on our part, and would like to thank Devangshu Dutta and provide him full credit for the insights he shared with our reporter."

This is with reference to the article that appeared in the Images Retail, May 2014, Volume 13 No.5, Page 100, titled, 'Guarding your Chickens'. We regret to inform that Amar Subash's designation was misprinted.

Correction: G Amar Subash is General Manager, Commercial & Retail at Tyco.
