

CONTENTS

OCTOBER 2011

IN THIS ISSUE

38.....Market Intelligence
Off the Beaten Track: 20 Indian Retail Destinations Worth Exploring
 Is there life beyond the metros for Indian retailers? Actually there is. Here is a look at the emerging retail destinations. Excerpts from a Jones Lang LaSalle Meghraj Report.

78.....Technology
Traceability in Retail: Reducing RFID Media Costs for Best Value
 Item-level RFID tagging is making easy product location and checkout possible. Retailers adopting this technique are realizing results in inventory efficiency, notes Andrew Tay.

96.....QnA
"Delhi Duty Free is soon going to emerge as one of the world's top five duty-free shopping experiences"
 Arun Barathi, COO, Delhi Duty Free Services, reveals how the company has managed to change the image of Delhi duty free shops for the better in the span of one year.

104.....Technology
Luxury Retail: Enter the Tablets
 Samartha Raghava Nagabhushanam says the smart use of computer tablets by retailers can be a game changer for the luxury retailing sector in India.

118.....E-commerce
Mobile Commerce: Lessons From the Edge
 Here is some guidance on where the retail industry stands in terms of mobile strategy, and where it is headed in the near future. By Nikki Baird of Retail Systems Research.

DESIGN

138.....Intersport Stähle, Bad Dürkheim
 The new appearance of Intersport Stähle store is considered a real Eldorado for athletes, offering sportsperson a full and extensive range of products for all their sporting activities.

REGULARS

16.....International Updates
 24.....National Updates
 188.....New Store Openings
 192.....Situations Vacant

FACTS BEHIND THE FIGURES > FDI IN RETAIL > RESPONSIBLE RETAILING > FINANCING AND VALUATION
 TECHNOLOGY > CHALLENGES > HUMAN RESOURCES > DATA MINING > URBAN MIDDLE CLASS INDIAN HOUSEWIFE > ECOMMERCE > LUXURY RETAIL
 > CONVERSATIONS > MOTIVATION > EMERGING BRANDS AND RETAILERS > CASE STUDIES > CUSTOMER SERVICE > URBAN MIDDLE CLASS INDIAN HOUSEWIFE > ECOMMERCE > LUXURY RETAIL
 > BOTTOM OF THE PYRAMID > FINANCIAL MEDIA > BACK-END OPERATIONS > FDI IN RETAIL > RESPONSIBLE RETAILING > FINANCING AND VALUATION
 > CONVERSATIONS > MOTIVATION > EMERGING BRANDS AND RETAILERS > CASE STUDIES > CUSTOMER SERVICE > URBAN MIDDLE CLASS INDIAN HOUSEWIFE > ECOMMERCE > LUXURY RETAIL

SHOPPING FOR RETAIL SUCCESS

IRF
INDIA RETAIL FORUM

COVER STORY 84
 IRF 2011'S TWO-DAY POWER-PACKED AGENDA WILL DISCUSS AND DEBATE IN DETAIL EVERY ASPECT OF THE RETAIL BUSINESS IN INDIA TO OFFER UNIQUE INSIGHTS AND PERSPECTIVES THAT CAN HELP GIVE THE INDUSTRY A SOLID BOOST.

CONTENTS

OCTOBER 2011

IN THIS ISSUE

124.....QnA

"We are in a sweet spot with no organized competitors"

Pawan Gadia, CEO of florist chain Ferns N Petals, chats about the dynamics of the organized flower retail market and the changing tastes of the customers.

130.....Logistics

Collection & Delivery Operations: Mobile Technology Innovations for Competitive Advantage

Mark Davis says companies in the collection and delivery business can use the latest mobile technology innovations to stay ahead of competitors

144.....Research

The 21st Century Store: The Search for Relevance

Will the brick-and-mortar stores stay relevant in the coming decades, faced with the onslaught of online retailers, ask Paula Rosenblum and Steve Rowen. A June 2011 Benchmark Report by Retail Systems Research.

172.....Insight

The Specialty Leasing Business

Carts, kiosks, temporary in-line stores – comparing North American success to the opportunities yet to unfold in the Indian retail industry. By Duffy C. Weir.

180.....Property

Mumbai is enjoying the new Infiniti!

The recently opened Infiniti Mall at Malad, Mumbai

DESIGN

166.....Hermès, Paris

The newly renovated Hermès store in Paris is exotic. While the hallowed historicity is carefully preserved, the linkages into the modern experiences of high-end retailing have been quietly accentuated.

DESIGN

184.....FCML, New Delhi

The look and feel of this exquisitely designed new flagship showroom of FCML showcasing bathroom accessories oozes luxury and opulence.

